Introduction

The Centre for the Promotion of Knowledge and Language Learning (CPKLL), Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) was established at the end of 1994 with the aim of offering the university's core courses for students from all faculties in the UMS Campus. This centre was established towards realising UMS vision and mission, to produce competent and holistic students in their field of studies.

Aim

Producing graduates who are able to apply humanistic values to face the current challenges

Objectives

- producing graduates with universal values and entrepreneurship skill.
- producing graduates who are able to communicate in English, foreign and local languages.
- shaping graduates with holistic intellectual quality and humanity skills through liberal studies.

Motto

"Strengthening Humanistic Values"

Equipping the graduates with knowledge to become an individual with holistic personality and intellectual.

Course Structures

The courses offered at the Centre for the Promotion of Knowledge and Language Learning are divided into three clusters, namely:

- Compulsory University Cluster (6 credit hours)
- Language Cluster (8 credit hours)
- Liberal Studies Cluster (6 credit hours)
