INTRODUCTION

The Centre for the Promotion of Knowledge and Language Learning (CPKLL), Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) was established at the end of 1994 with the aim of offering university core courses for students from all faculties at the UMS campus. This centre was established to realise UMS's vision and mission and to produce competent and holistic students in their field of studies.

AIM

To produce graduates who are able to apply humanistic values when facing current challenges.

OBJECTIVES

- To produce graduates with universal values and entrepreneurship skill.
- To produce graduates who are able to communicate in English, foreign and local languages.
- To shape graduates with holistic intellectual quality and humanity skills through liberal studies.

MOTTO

"Strengthening Humanistic Values"

Equipping graduates with knowledge to become individuals with holistic personality and intellect.

COURSE STRUCTURES

The courses offered at the Centre for the Promotion of Knowledge and Language Learning are divided into three clusters, namely:

- Compulsory University Cluster (6 credit hours)
- Language Cluster (8 credit hours)
- Elective Liberal Cluster (6 credit hours)
